Re: United States v. Ting, 13 Cr. 268 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

I represent the defendant, Edwin Ting in the above referenced matter. With the consent of A.U.S.A. Joshua Naftalis, and Pretrial Services Officer Jeff Steimel, I respectfully submit this letter to request a modification of Mr. Ting's bail conditions to permit him to travel with his wife, sister in law, nieces and nephews to Disney World in Orlando, Florida between May 9, 2013 and May 12, 2013 for a vacation that was planned and paid for prior to his arrest. To be clear, the prepaid tickets are for travel between the airport located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Orlando, Florida. Thus we would request that Mr. Ting's bail conditions be modified to allow him to travel first to Pennsylvania (which is outside the geographical restrictions of his release) for his departure flight to Orlando, and then allow him to return to his home in Atlantic City, New Jersey, via the Philadelphia airport.

To remind the Court, Mr. Ting was released on a $500,000 bond with the following bail conditions:

- his travel is limited to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and the District of New Jersey;
- he surrendered his travel documents (and no new applications);
- he is under strict pretrial supervision;
- he is to submit to drug testing/treatment; and
- he is not to gamble.

To date, Mr. Ting has been in compliance with all of his conditions of release that have been in place since his arraignment.

Thank you for your time and consideration of this request.

Respectfully Submitted,
